You say you love me, but you know it's a lie
Two time, two times bad
You want to hurt me and make me cry
Honey, that's two time bad

I can see it in your eyes
What you can't hide
There's nothing in it for me but lies
That you can't hide

Now it's a cryin', cryin' same
Two time bad
I won't stay to play your hurtin' game
Two times bad

I've seen it so many times before
Two times, times bad
You're using me to even up the score
Two times, two times bad

Someone before me broke your heart
That you can't hide
You should have told me from the start
What you can't hide

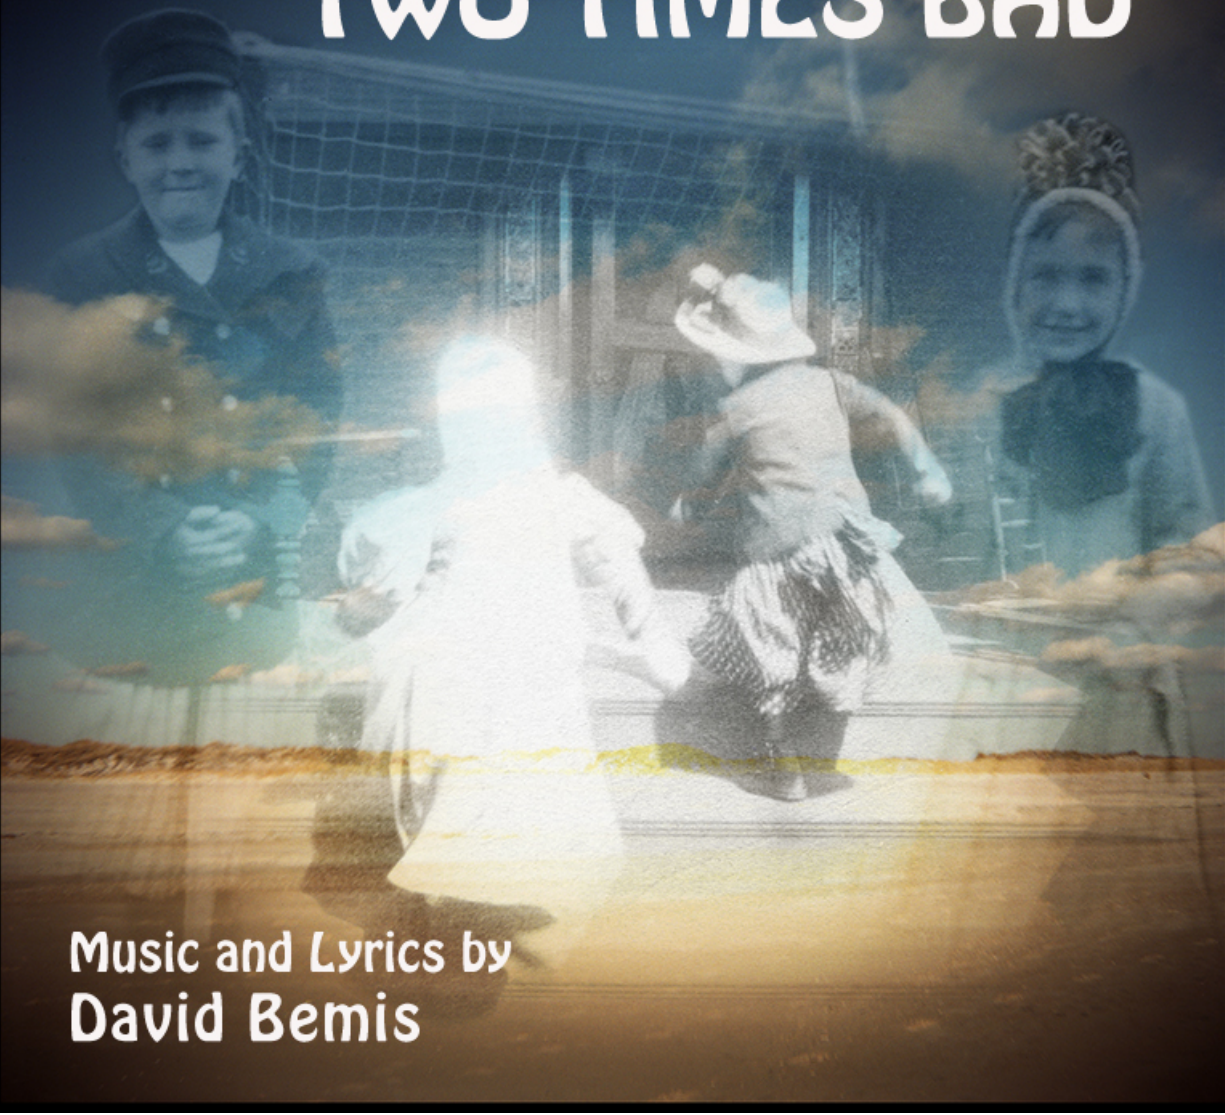

Now it's a cryin', cryin' same
Two time bad
I won't stay to play your hurtin' game
Two times bad

Break

I can see it in your eyes
What you can't hide
There's nothing in it for me but lies
That you can't hide

Now it's a cryin', cryin' same
Two time bad
I won't stay to play your hurtin' game
Two times bad
